Many Are Plowing

Plowing which has started only a Plowing which has started only a short time since has become fairly general north of Pendleton, according o, reports being received here today. The operations are largely confined to fields with a south slope as north slope fields still have considerable frost in the ground. Particularly is this true of the ground which lies under the windrows of straw left by he harvesters last season.

Operetta to be Given

The Operetta, The Gypsy Queen, ill be presented at the Pendleton high school on the evening of April 28, by 75 high school students. The operetta is under the direction of Mrs. . H. Forshaw, instructor in public assembled and the operetta promises o be a decided success. The 75 who appear in it will be divided into three groups of 25 each, in the roles of gypes, Tyroleans and fairies.

An invitation from the Portland Chamber of Commerce to the memers of the Pendleton Commercial Asociation to be present Tuesday evening at a banquet which will be given in honor of Sir Auckland Geddes, British ambarsador to the United States, has been received at the offices of the local organization. Any local men who wish to have credentials which will enable them to atend the banquet may be accommodated at the office, Secretary C. I. Barr said

Project Is Launched.

A nutrition project has been launched in the west end of the county, under the direction of Mrs. Edith G. Van Deusen, home demonstration agent, who states that Miss Murjery Smith, of O. A. C., will supervise the Mrs. Henry Sommeter, of Hermiston, la local project leader. According to plans, a record of the feeding of eight or 10 children will be kept n order to establish die aries that would be of benefit to mothers children of the asme age or physical ondition. In some cases among the children selected, no change in food will be necessary but in others at a gestions will be followed. The first neeting will be held at some future date and at the second one a physician will examine the children. Other meetings will be public and will be a.l. dressed by Mrs. Van Deusen, trained nurses, etc. After a six months' period, a demonstration meeting will be held, reports will be read and answers given to questions. At that time a report of the weight changes in bables will be given. A second physical ex-amination will be held at the end of

ROOF-TOPS OF NEW YORK

SEEN IN "RENT PREE" The rooftops of New York! When you see them in "Rent Free," Wallace Reid's new Paramount pteture which is to be seen at the Rivoli theatre Sunday, you'll swear they are the real thing

But they are not. The company might have been taken to New York; they could have built a tremendous datform to stage the scenesdred or more—but they did neither Director Howard Higgin and the art directors and others evolved the plan

Dependable Clothing and Furnishings for Boys

Bring him in and let us outfit him from head to foot. High grade goods, neat, nifty and sport styles, at lowest possible prices, considering quality offered.

Individualism in Suits for the Boy

Quite likely he will scorn the suggestion that his suit must be smartly designed-but just the same he'll be watching the other fellows to see that nobody scores on him for looks. The store presents new Spring collections of Boy's Suits that command respect for their clever styling careful tailoring. Undeniably smart, of imported tweeds, herringbones, homespuns, as correct in every detail as a man's clothes. $7.50 to $25.00

Picking his own from Spring assortments will give the boy the time of his life. The gay colors and nifty styles suggest no end of outdoor sport—and strike many a responsive chord among grown-ups, as well. Up to

Kaynee Blouses Stand the Strain of Lively Boys

Kaynee Blouses for boys wear longer and look better, because they are so perfectly made.

Sun-fast and tub-fast materials, perfectly cut; made with lock-stitched seams; substantial button holes and first quality buttons are features that make the Kaynee Blouse the leader of quality and style.

Kaynee Blouses are not expensive, being priced at $1.00 and up. Come in and see our new designs.

Any eld blouse isn't good enough for your boy. Boys are pretty much like older folks—when they're dressed right they look right and feel right.

"Tillie" is entirely different from the modern "flappers" which she has most recently given us. Gone are the curis; gone in the 20th century vivacity—and in their place one sees a little drudge with a hunted look in her eyes; a girl brought up in a strict Mennonite community, her father cruel and grasping personality who denies her al ithose things that belong to a maid just emerging into woman

There is intrigue concerning a $20. 000 bequest to go to the girl providing she becomes a Mennonite and there's a young man who shows her f peep of the outside world, and makes the $20,000 look like a thin dime in comparison to true happiness

The story is well-worked out and provides a happy combination pathos, drama and humor, said to the three entertainment essentials. Certainly the marriage by an elder stuck in a swamp is one of the funniest situations the writer has seen in a long while.
